Attitudes Matter is a Non-Profit 501 (c) 3 organizations that targets children ages 7-17 yrs. old in our community. We aim to provide problem solving skills, youth-to-youth communication skill, safety skills for home and school and plenty everyday life skills. These are some of the resources needed to assist our youth in the community. These skills are needed so our youth can live life as they grow in the society.

Our Vision includes a community of all children, at-risk teens, juvenile delinquency teens, children who need to learn how to stop over-reacting and making bad decision out anger. We target to achieve this by teaching them skills to prevent violence. Our vision revolves around the love, safety, care and thoughtfulness for each child

Attitudes Matter N Human Souls Youth Group is not subsidized by the state or local government; therefore we completely rely on donations received from benevolent community members and businesses, we are in need of funding to help our youth, operating expenses so that we can continue working with our youth in the community. Please see the attached documents and donation ask for our upcoming Spring event.
